

Economics Dept./College of Business
International Trade & Globalization
Assistant Professor

Job Ad: Economics Department, International Trade

The San Francisco State University, Department of Economics invites applicants for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in International Trade and Globalization beginning August 2018.

The department seeks individuals with a background in International Trade and Globalization.

The Department of Economics offers both a BA and an MA degree separate from the business programs. The department has 10.4 faculty members and serves approximately 250 undergraduate majors and 25 graduate students.

Qualifications:

Candidates should have Ph.D. in economics at the time of appointment.

Candidates should have a strong background in International Trade.

Candidates must demonstrate the ability to teach courses in the areas of international trade, globalization, and introductory/intermediate economics. Preferred candidates should have experience teaching, or mentoring minorities, or other underrepresented groups.

Candidates must demonstrate a potential for active scholarship related to International Trade and Globalization as well as a potential for excellence in teaching.

Candidates must be able to demonstrate how they have or will incorporate inclusion, diversity, and educational equity in their courses and/or scholarship/creative works.

Responsibilities: The position requires graduate and undergraduate teaching in economics, mentoring and advising graduate and undergraduate students, developing an active ongoing scholarship program in one's area of specialty, and ongoing committee and service assignments. Detailed position description is available at <http://cob.sfsu.edu/economics>.

Rank and salary: Assistant Professor. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. The CSU provides generous health, retirement and other benefits.

Application process:

Submit letter of interest with a brief statement detailing why you are interested in SFSU, a current CV, research samples, graduate transcripts, evidence of teaching effectiveness, three letters of reference.

Economics Dept./College of Business
International Trade & Globalization
Assistant Professor

Submit all materials online to Job Opportunities for Economists/American Economics Association website: <https://www.aeaweb.org/joe/>. by November 17, 2017. Review of application will continue until the position is filled.

San Francisco State University is a member of the California State University system and serves a diverse student body of 30,000 undergraduate and graduate students. The University seeks to promote appreciation of scholarship, freedom and, human diversity through excellence in instruction and intellectual accomplishment. SFSU faculty are expected to be effective teachers and demonstrate professional achievement and growth through research, scholarship, and/or creative work. Our goal is to attract a world-class and diverse faculty committed to build a multicultural educational environment.

San Francisco State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer with a strong commitment to diversity. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other legally protected category. We particularly encourage those who may be from historically underrepresented groups.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU.