

Department/School Name: Finance/College of Business
Area of Specialization: International Finance/Risk Management
Rank of Appointment: Assistant/Associate Professor

Job Ad:

San Francisco State University, Department of Finance/College of Business offers an exciting opportunity for a tenure-track Assistant or Associate Professor position in Finance beginning August 2019. We seek a colleague whose teaching and research interests include international finance, risk management, financial management and financial data analysis. We are especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute, through their research, teaching, and/or service, through diversity, to the excellence of the academic community.

The finance department currently has 13 full-time tenure/tenure-track professors and several part-time lecturers. Our faculty excel in teaching, community services and research. Faculty research publications appear in top-quality journals including Journal of Finance, Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis, Journal of Financial Economics, Financial Analyst Journal and Journal of Behavioral Finance. The department also has a certificate program in commercial real estate.

The mission of San Francisco State University is to create and maintain an environment for learning that promotes respect for and appreciation of scholarship, freedom, human diversity, and the cultural mosaic of the City of San Francisco and the Bay Area; to promote excellence in instruction and intellectual accomplishment; and to provide broadly accessible higher education for residents of the region and state, as well as the nation and world. To fulfill its mission, the University is committed to the following goals:

- Attracting, retaining and graduating a highly diverse student body
- Providing disciplinary and interdisciplinary liberal arts and professional education that is academically rigorous and intellectually challenging
- Providing curricula that reflect all dimensions of human diversity, and that encourage critical thinking and a commitment to social justice
- Recruiting, retaining and supporting a diverse faculty whose teaching demonstrates an active engagement with their individual fields of study and whose creative and scholarly work is an extension of the classroom, laboratory or studio
- Employing a staff and administration reflecting the diversity of our student community and the values of the campus;
- Fostering a collegial and cooperative intellectual environment that includes recognition and appreciation of differing viewpoints and promotes academic freedom within the University community; and
- Serving the communities with which its students and faculty are engaged.
