San Francisco State University, Accounting Department of College of Business offers an exciting opportunity for a tenure-track Assistant or Associate Professor position in Accounting beginning August 2019. We seek a colleague whose teaching and research interests include Financial Accounting and related areas. We are especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute, through their research, teaching, and/or service, through diversity, to the excellence of the academic community.

The Accounting Department offers a Master of Science in Accountancy degree and a BSBA degree with a concentration in Accounting. Accounting is one of nine departments in the College of Business and has approximately 16 full time faculty, 45 MSA students, and 700 undergraduate accounting majors. Our students represent more than 100 nationalities and reflect the rich cultural and economic diversity of the Bay Area. San Francisco State University provides a vital educational service to the many business communities in the Bay Area such as the San Francisco Financial District and Silicon Valley.

The mission of San Francisco State University is to create and maintain an environment for learning that promotes respect for and appreciation of scholarship, freedom, human diversity, and the cultural mosaic of the City of San Francisco and the Bay Area; to promote excellence in instruction and intellectual accomplishment; and to provide broadly accessible higher education for residents of the region and state, as well as the nation and world. To fulfill its mission, the University is committed to the following goals:

- Attracting, retaining and graduating a highly diverse student body
- Providing disciplinary and interdisciplinary liberal arts and professional education that is academically rigorous and intellectually challenging
- Providing curricula that reflect all dimensions of human diversity, and that encourage critical thinking and a commitment to social justice
- Recruiting, retaining and supporting a diverse faculty whose teaching demonstrates an active engagement with their individual fields of study and whose creative and scholarly work is an extension of the classroom, laboratory or studio
- Employing a staff and administration reflecting the diversity of our student community and the values of the campus;
- Fostering a collegial and cooperative intellectual environment that includes recognition and appreciation of differing viewpoints and promotes academic freedom within the University community; and
- Serving the communities with which its students and faculty are engaged.

Responsibilities: The position requires graduate and undergraduate teaching in financial accounting, mentoring and advising graduate and undergraduate students, developing an active ongoing scholarship program in one’s area of specialty, and ongoing committee and service assignments. Detailed position description is available at http://cob.sfsu.edu/.
Qualifications:
Required:
• Ph.D. or equivalent degree in Accounting with specialization in Financial Accounting from an AACSB-accredited program. Certifications, such as CPA, CMA, CIA, or CISA, are desirable. Terminal degree must be completed by the first day of employment.

Preferred:
• Record of teaching contributions in the areas of Accounting.
• Active record of scholarship related to specialty area.
• Demonstrated ability to incorporate inclusion, diversity, and educational equity in teaching, and/or scholarship/creative works
• Experience teaching and working closely with students from historically under-represented communities
• Record of contributing to collegial, supportive and collaborative work environments

Rank and salary: Assistant or Associate Professor. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. The California State University (CSU) provides generous health, retirement and other benefits.

Application: Submit letter of intent/interest, a current CV, a statement on how your teaching and scholarship align with the commitment of the Accounting Department to foster an inclusive and diverse academic community; names and contact information of three references. Letters of recommendation upon request at a later date.

San Francisco State is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate against persons on the basis of race, religion, color, ancestry, age, disability, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, medical condition, National origin, sex, sexual orientation, covered veteran status, or any other protected status. Reasonable accommodations will be provided for qualified applicants with disabilities who self-disclose by contacting the Senior Human Resources Manager.

Short version (for expensive venues):
San Francisco State University, Department of Accounting seeks applicants for a tenure-track Assistant or Associate Professor position in Financial Accounting beginning August 2019. The mission of San Francisco State University is to create an environment for learning that promotes appreciation of scholarship, freedom, human diversity, and the cultural mosaic of the City of San Francisco and the Bay Area; to promote excellence in instruction and intellectual accomplishment; and to provide broadly accessible higher education for residents of the region, state, the nation, and the world. Ph.D. or equivalent degree in Accounting from an AACSB accredited program required. Salary commensurate with qualifications. Position description available at http://cob.sfsu.edu/. Application review begins August 2018, continues until filled, Send letter of intent, a current CV, a statement on how your teaching and scholarship align with the commitment of the Accounting Department to foster an inclusive and diverse academic community; contact information of three references. Letters of recommendation upon request at a later date. Submit all materials to Amy Chang, Accounting Department Chair, at actthire@sfsu.edu.