

Rubric for International/Global Perspective
(Awareness of Legal, Political, Social, Economic, Technological and Cultural Issues)

Date: _____

Rater: _____

Course: _____

Student: _____

TRAIT	Unacceptable	Acceptable	Exemplary
Identification of International/Global Factors (A)	No or incomplete identification of some or all of the following relevant international/global issues: legal, technological, economic, political, social and/or cultural.	Some identification of most of the relevant international/global issues.	Clear and some detailed identification of relevant legal, technological, economic, political, social and/or cultural issues.
Analysis of international/Global Factors (B)	No analysis of impact of relevant international/global issues; Erroneous analysis of impact.	Some analysis of impact of international/global issues; some inaccuracies in analysis.	Clear, accurate and somewhat detailed analysis of impact of relevant international/global issues.
Application of Analysis to Solve Management Problem(s) (C)	No application of analysis to solve specific international management problem(s); incorrect conclusions or recommendations made.	Some application of analysis to solve specific international management problem(s), weak conclusions or recommendations made.	Clear application of analysis to solve specific international management problem(s); valid conclusions and good recommendations given.