WHO: The Hospitality and Tourism Department and its students at San Francisco State University.

WHAT: Taste of the Bay is a student driven event. Taste of the Bay, an evening of delightful food and aromatic wines, is the 18th annual fundraiser organized and presented by the Hospitality and Tourism Management Department and its students at San Francisco State University. Guests will sample exquisite culinary creations prepared by renowned Bay Area Chefs and a diverse selection of location California-grown wines. Guests will also have the opportunity to participate in live and silent auctions. Taste of the Bay welcomes Jon Bristow, co-host of KGO 810 AM’s Morning News as this year’s event emcee.

WHEN: Wednesday, November 12, 2014 from 6:30-9:30 p.m.

WHERE: City View Metreon, 135 4th St, San Francisco, CA;
Located in the heart of downtown San Francisco, this year’s event will be at the City View located at the top of the Metreon building. This spacious venue features panoramic views of beautiful downtown San Francisco Bay, including the Yerba Buena Gardens.

WHY: Taste of the Bay aims to raise funds for student scholarships, program needs, and professional development opportunities. The students engage in these professional development activities through participation in the hospitality related student organizations: Hospitality Management Society, National Society of Minorities in Hospitality, Club Managers Association of America, and Professional Convention Management Association

The Taste of the Bay fundraiser is open to the public. To schedule an interview, contact Jennifer Whitney, Event Chair, 925 325 9951(cell) or jwhitney94551@gmail.com or Lamia Ramadan, Public Relations Manager, 415 799-6802 at pr.totb@gmail.com. Please visit our website at www.tasteofthebaysf.com for more information, or to purchase tickets. Tickets are $100 until November 11, 2014 and then increase to $150 the day of the event.
